What now?

After payment, you will receive a statement.

You will receive updates of itinerary changes and info starting a month before your departure, the final one a week before.

Reservations for group bookings at restaurants are final after DAY 1, you cannot cancel before or a day before and some receive deposits from me. Please be sure which restaurants you want to reserve.

Please make sure you have all your requirements with you. And remember that I am not a tour operator, so have limited powers – like fixing your drinks or making reservations for you.

If you plan to swim in the sea (yeow) remember your beach towel.

Pack for warm and cool days – the weather in the Cape is difficult to predict. Remember your sunscreen and hat.

Paternoster is small, you can walk from one side to the other, and all areas visited will be in a 25km radius.

On your off times, you can plan an array of activities, but chances are you won't do too much. These include kayaking, yoga, horse riding and so on.

The idea of Paternoster is so you can learn, relax and enjoy the good food with your fellow artists – don't worry about your art experience – that is my job.
